

RADIO TV REPORTS, INC.

4701 WILLARD AVENUE, CHEVY CHASE, MARYLAND 20815 (301) 656-4068

FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS STAFF

PROGRAM ABC News STATION WMAL Radio
ABC Network

DATE June 6, 1985 12:00 Noon CITY Washington, D.C.

SUBJECT CIA Study/U.S. Submarine Vulnerability

KATE DORDEN: The Pentagon confirms that the CIA is working on a study of U.S. submarine vulnerability -- that is, vulnerability to the Soviets, who may have some important secrets about the U.S. fleet. The CIA study apparently was begun before the latest Walker family spy case in which four men, all of them with Navy backgrounds and most of them related, are accused of selling secrets to the Soviets.